Monday, May 4

When you’re a kid, there are several big milestones you look forward to hitting as you get older. But in our spiritual lives, it can be harder to judge whether or not we’re really “growing up.” So Monday/today, Pastor J.D. Greear is describing the marks of a maturing believer. Listen Monday/today to Summit Life with J.D. Greear at (Time: _____) on (Station: _____)!

Tuesday, May 5

The Apostle Peter said that Christians are supposed to be different than the world around us. But what does that look like, practically speaking? Pastor J.D. Greear answers that question as he continues our series called I Am an Alien. That’s Tuesday/today ... on Summit Life with J.D. Greear! Join us at (Time: _____) on (Station: _____)!

Wednesday, May 6

In the book of First Peter, Christians are called to be aliens on this earth. That may make for a pretty cool bumper sticker ... but what does it actually mean? What does it look like, practically, to live as a citizen of heaven and NOT of earth? Join us for answers Wednesday/today at (Time: _____) on Summit Life with J.D. Greear!

Thursday, May 7

The Bible clearly calls believers to submit to authority ... whether that’s parental authority, a boss at work, or the government. But what about when they’re morally corrupt? What if they’re mistreating you ... or denying justice? Pastor J.D. Greear deals with these sticky questions of authority Thursday/today at (Time: _____) ... on Summit Life!

Friday, May 8

In America today, Christians aren’t facing torture or death for speaking the truth. But the Bible makes it clear that if you’re really following Jesus, then the world’s going to oppose you ... in one way or another. So what do we do when you face persecution? That is the question we’ll be looking at Friday/today at (Time: _____) ... on Summit Life with J.D. Greear.
